Becoming a victim of crime is a reality that many of us will face in Clermont County. It is never anticipated, but crime has no boundaries creating a frightening and confusing experience. Facing physical and emotional trauma creates many questions about the process of the criminal justice system.

The Victim Assistance Program, established within the Prosecutor's Office, is committed to helping victims navigate through the criminal justice system. Assistance is available from the time a criminal offense or delinquent act is committed and continues throughout the legal process, to guarantee that crime victims receive the appropriate and necessary services and support. Services provided through this program are explained in this brochure.

If you or anyone you know is a victim of criminal offense or delinquent act, please consider calling us for assistance.

Municipal (Misdemeanor) Trial Process

Criminal Complaint is filed.
Arraignment/Bond Hearing Defendant is informed of their rights and given a bond
The case is then set for a Pre-Trial Hearing (Also known as Plea/Trial Settings). Information is exchanged, plea discussions happen.
The case is then set for trial where the victim/witness has to testify.	A plea can happen instead of trial where the defendant would plead.
Pre-Sentence Investigation (PSI) – A PSI is an investigation done by probation in an attempt to find out more information about the defendant prior to the Judge giving the defendant a sentence.
*Sentencing happens after a plea or a conviction. A sentencing hearing is where the Judge determines what the defendant should be ordered to do based on the crime committed.
An appeal can be filed after the sentencing hearing.

If the case is dismissed or the defendant is found not guilty at trial, then a sentencing hearing would not occur.
